Sharon:

Thanks again for hearing us out last week on the technical interface between NYS OU2 and USEPA OU3. And thanks for considering the attached as you put together a list of PRP's for the NPL site. Based upon the attached, where we have established four path's to Adchem's liability, and considering EPA's stage of this process, it is hard for us to see how Adchem is not potentially responsible.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

John
